Customer/Members User:

- Customer can sign up to this application using their phone number which will have otp verification process.

- Customer will be able to register on the appliation using the required data like name, birth date, email and gender.

- End user will be able to view the recently added events, insights, featured blogs and can create an event or even can chat with the support team in case required.

- Upon clicking on the create event the customer can choose the event type, will be able to save the venue and add the related details of the event which are title, date, description and timings.

- From criteria of requested members, allowed guests or public users, customer can make a selection or will be able to make a multiple selection as needed (Yes, No, may be).

- User can make the event open or can keep it as a private one.

- User can choose to charge the attendees as event fees if required.

- Customer can find various invitation designs and will be able to add the required data and create an invitation.

- User will be able to send the invitation to their contacts where in this application they will get the ready templates where as in user can make the necessary changes.

- User can send this invitation using normal text sms, whatsapp and email (if the user needs to skip out the invite image then he can do so).

- User will be able to give an access of their contact numbers from the phone or they can import the csv file of the contacts.

- Once the contacts are imported on the system customer will be able to send the invitations to them by selecting the specific or all users

- The attendees users will get a qr code once they have rsvp'd to the received invitation.

- Business card creation and share the card link with each other - personal cards and business cards

Additional changes:

-Events are segregated according to their category types
-User will be able to create the communities and view the different communities categorized into religions

-User can connect and view the members of the community and can have a conversation with them

-User can request private community to join and pay them the registration fee in case required and become a member of the same

-Search filters are added for the community categorized, number of members and open or closed type of community

Business User:

- Business Authorized user can sign up to this application using their phone number which will have otp verification process.

- Business User will need to provide necessary details like authorized person's name, email id, mobile number and business related details like business name, contact details & data required as per the business type.

- User can choose the services they would like to keep from the modules provided.

- User can add the members, their details and will be able to create their profiles.

- User will be able to view the member details in tabular format, block the member under their membership.

- User can verify and approve the changes done by the registered members.

- User will be able to verify and approve the new registration of the members.

- User can create regions and assign a regional admin

- User will be able to add samitis to the portal and can manage the same

- User can view the recently added events, insights, featured blogs and can create an event or even can chat with the support team in case required

- Upon clicking on the create event the customer can choose the event type, will be able to save the venue and add the related details of the event which are title, date, description and timings

- The admin can create event which could connect the registration of membership so incase a event is marked as register new user then the event will have option to collect membership fees while accepting the attendance of new user.

- User can update obituary and manage data of the same

- From criteria of requested members, allowed guests or public users, customer can make a selection or will be able to make a multiple selection as needed(Yes, No, May be, Custom)

- User can make the event open or can keep it as a private one

- User can choose to charge the attendees as event fees if required

- Customer can find various invitation designs and will be able to add the required data and create an invitation

- User will be able to get send the invitation to their contacts where in this application they will get the ready templates where as in user can make the necessary changes

- User can send this invitation using normal text sms, whatsapp and email (they can send the invite without the invite image also)

- User will be able to give an access of their contact numbers from the phone or they can import the csv file of the contacts

- Once the contacts are imported on the system customer will be able to send the invitations to them

Additional changes:

-Business User will be able to view the trending posts and community posts

-User can create a post and upload on the feed

-User can create the donation part to be made categorized

-User will be able to view the donations made till now and can check it in the history

-User will be able to view the community member details and can have conversation with them

Entry Management Team

-This app needs to be purchased by the communities/businesses

-Team will be able to check the guest list and mark their entry on a click

- Operational team will be able to check and verify the profiles of event attendees and the family members profiles using QR code provided to them upon confirming their invites

- User can add the guests in case necessary and manage the related payments

-All the payments will be done in cash mode or online mode which can be updated in the Event creators panel and to the entry management's login id

This part changed and we optimized it in the existing app only

-Where the event creator will be able to add the staff to the event using their user ID

-The added staff will get notified and able to view the events they will have to manage in their profile section

-Staff will be able to check and verify the profiles of event attendees and the family members profiles using QR code provided to them upon confirming their invites

- User can add the guests in case necessary and manage the related payments

Master Admin:

- Accounts will be created and managed for the businesses or samitis / the user.

- For events admin can add the pricing chart according to the number of people that will be the members or attend the event and the number of events to be held by the event planners/samitis

- Admin can create the membership packages as per the organizations/Samiti

- User can add the members, their details and will be able to create their profiles - once the profile is created a digital id card gets generated which can be used as an identity of this ecosystem

- User will be able to view the member details in tabular format where they can edit the details, view the profile and delete / block the member

- User can verify and approve the changes done by the registered members

- User will be able to verify and approve the new registration of the members

- User can create regions and assign a regional admin

- User will be able to add samitis to the portal and can manage the same

- User can view the recently added events, insights, featured blogs and can create an event or even can chat with the support team in case required

- Upon clicking on the create event the customer can choose the event type, will be able to save the venue and add the related details of the event which are title, date, description and timings

- User can update obituary and manage data of the same

- From criteria of requested members, allowed guests or public users, customer can make a selection or will be able to make a multipl selection as needed

- User can make the event open or can keep it as a private one

- User can choose to charge the attendees as event fees if required

- User can find various invitation designs and will be able to add the required data and create an invitation

- User will be able to get send the invitation to their contacts where in this application they will get the ready templates where as in user can make the necessary changes

- User can send this invitation using normal text sms, whatsapp and email

- User will be able to give an access of their contact numbers from the phone or they can import the csv file of the contacts

- Once the contacts are imported on the system user will be able to send the invitations to them

- Admin will be able to view the interested attendee's list/ people who have RSVPed

- Admin can add/create/manage the members of the social network

- Admin can view and verify the data of the event attendees or can create the sub admin with limited access can approve & verify the event attendees

- The user can create a QR code for the users to download the application

- Admin can view and manage the reviews posted by the end-users

- Admin can view the payment history of the Samiti/event planners

- Admin can view the event attendees, guest attendees, event-related reports, and payment histories of the events/event planners and Samiti

- Reports to be viewed and also given to the samiti head and business head